Wanna Buy a Corporate Duck?

The Hudson Rotary Club encourages you to participate in the 19th Annual Great Corporate Duck Race, slated for Saturday, June 5th.

Corporate Ducks—16” mallard decoys—are a mere $60.

- The vast majority of proceeds (over 90%) fund $7000 of scholarships annually awarded to students from Hudson High School and Assabet Valley Regional High School.

Your duck dollars support outstanding scholars!

- So, once you buy your duck...what do you do? You can decorate your duck, deliver it to the Chamber or Knight Fuel, or to the Hudson Fest and it'll be "judged" by a distinguished panel of judges on June 5th (If you deliver it to the Fest, be there by 10 am!). You can opt to have an elementary school classroom adopt and decorate your duck. You can ask us to "put your name on your duck" and we'll race it down the almighty Assabet. Or, you can bypass the duck altogether and simply make a donation.
- Corporate Ducks are judged at 10:30 am. at the Hudson Community Fest on June 5th at the Cellucci Park on South St. 1st place winners receive hand carved collectible decoys from Hudson's own Will Kirkpatrick. The winning classroom will receive a donation for books and supplies. Immediately following, those hardy ducks that wish to enter the "race" will be dropped into the Assabet River at the Washington St. Bridge. The 1st duck to waddle, swim or catapult to the Broad St. Bridge wins bragging rights! After the race, entrants may claim their duck. However, if you're not going to be around, you can pick up your duck from Knight Fuel on Main St.
